ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At first, I would like to thank central department of management (CDM) for its greatest support to complete my MBS degree thesis and also helping me throughout my research work. The infrastructures of the campus have played an eminent role to complete this thesis in time. My thesis supervisors Asso. Prof. Achyut Raj Bhattarai and Laxman Raj Kandel of Shanker Dev Campus had assisted me throughout the completion of this thesis and therefore I am very much indebted to their contributions. Their assistance for this research work has been preferred to be very prudent and I would like to thank from the core of my heart. There have been considerable helping hands from many other personalities of the campus. In this regard, I would like to thank to all of them. I would like to thank also to the campus chief Prof. Dr. Kamal Deep Dhakal of Shanker Dev Campus for providing necessary suggestions during my research work.

I am thankful to all known and unknown lecturers and other staff members of central department of management for helping me to make my final work productive one. The librarians of Shanker Dev library will always be remembered for their assistance to provide me necessary documents related to my thesis. The Annual Report relating to Unilever Nepal Limited has also been very fruitful to complete my study. So, I am also thankful to UNL and Mr. R.B Shah. My Parents and my friends Bhaskar, Suman, Shiba, Yojana, Hikmat, Mukunda and Govinda have always been kind to all my inquiries to complete my works in time.

My spiritual thanks goes to Mr. Prakash Dhakal and Miss Sharmila Parajuli for their help in preparing thesis in this form. Finally, I am indebted to all the associates who had contributed to make this thesis completed.
