ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Research and development is one of the key to innovation and generation of new ideas. It is also a means to resolve immediate and chronic problems encountered by any organization or nation and to contribute in the general knowledge of the literature .with the same kind of vision to solve the most daunting problem and challenge of the financial system i.e. Non-performing assets of the commercial bank in Nepal this research has been undertaken to study.

I express my profound gratitude to my supervisor, respected lecturer. Mr. Dhruba Kumar Budhathoki, Head of Research Department, Associate Prof. Dr. Push Raj Sharma, lecturer. Mr. Hari Pathak for advice and encouragement to complete this study

I am very much thankful to all my friends and especially to Mr. Hari Kandel, Mr. Mukti Pandey and Mr.Ramesh Baral for their kind advice, support and motivation to finish the research for his contribution in bringing this research in this form in time.

I also owe an indebtedness to all reputed authors whose writings have provided me the necessary guidance and invaluable material for the enrichment of my research work in all possible ways. My thanks also go to the individuals and institutions that generously provided required information to me

I would also like to express my indebtedness to my parents and family members who always encouraged and inspired me in my work. I gratefully acknowledge to Perfect Computer System, Bagar during computer typing and printing of this thesis correctly and neatly.

Needless to say 'to err is human' and I cannot to the expectation. For any remaining error in the calculation and the description reported in this dissertation are, of course, entirely my responsibilities. I hope the possible errors would be covered by the subsequent studies in this field in this future.
