ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Firstly, I would like to extend heartfelt gratitude to my honorable adviser Prof. Dr. Om Gurung Head of Central Department of Sociology/ Anthropology, Tribhuvan University for his valuable guidance and kind supervision.

I am grateful to Mr. Madhusudan Subedi for providing me inspiration and necessary comments on my dissertation. I have profited greatly from the suggestions and criticisms made by him as an external supervisor of my thesis.

Similarly, I am very much thankful to all of the families of Dalit people of Argal village for providing me family environment every time and coordinating me through out my research study period. Without whose support this study would not have been possible.
