Acknowledgement

First of all, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to lecturer Mr. Uddhav Rai for taking the responsibility to supervise the thesis. All through this study he extended me warm affection and guided the work with meticulous care and scholarly supervision. His tireless reading of various drafts of the thesis and his comments and suggestions made possible for me to finalize the work in time. I owe a debt to him for all the supports to which I will not be able to pay back ever.

My warm respect goes to my parents and my family members for their constant encouragement and cooperation for the entire period of my study. My heartfelt thanks go to my respected sister Laxmi Mahara and Mr. Krishna Acharya for their unflinching support for higher education and in completion of this research.

I am particularly great full to my friend Anshu Singh and my loving brother Yadav Bhandari who supported me in preparation of this thesis with valuable suggestions, advice, constructive comments and proof reading in finalizing the thesis.

Similarly I would also like to express my thanks to my friends Lekh Raj Ojha, Bishnu Gyawali, Rajendra Poudel, Prakash Adhikari, for their help and encouragement. Mr. Yogendra Awasthi, who helped me in the field by providing field information as and when necessary, deserves my special thanks.

I will be falling in my duty if I do not express my thanks and gratitude to the people who assisted me in the field work process and to those people who without hesitation responded to my questions and took part in hour-long group discussion.

I am grateful to many organizations and individuals who have contributed directly and indirectly for the completion of this thesis.

Shankar Kumar Bhatta
