ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am highly grateful to professor Om Gurung, Head of Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, T.U., for providing me an opportunity to conduct this study on the subject of my interest.

It is my great pleasure to submit this thesis, under the guidance of Madhusudan Subedi, Lecturer of the Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology (T.U.). I heartily appreciate his invaluable supervision and useful guidance, and no words can fully express my feeling of gratitude to him.

During the preparation of this report I visited different areas of Kathmandu(Ward No.14) and met several child labourers including the employers. In most of the places they fully co-operate me. So, I would like to extend my gratitude and sincere thanks to all the respondents for extending their assistance, co-operation and unhesitant respondent with correct answer.

I am also grateful to my family for their valuable encouragement and provision of a suitable environment. My special thanks go to Mr. Kausal Shrestha for his computer assistance.
