ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This dissertation entitled A Study on the Impact of Carpet Export in Nepal has been assigned, prepared and submitted for the partial fulfillment of the requirement for the masters degree course in economics. I am pleased to say that by the means of this thesis work, I have been able to get ample opportunities to broaden the horizon of my knowledge experience and insights regarding the subject matter in general and to discover and develop my hidden research skills in particular which has consequently contributed a lot in enhancing my level of confidence to a greater extent. However, throughout the entire course of preparation of this dissertation right from the early beginning of the topic to its final submission, I have been greatly encouraged, supported, assisted and guided by a lot of people of all of whose invisible efforts deserve special thanks and appreciation.

Firstly, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to our respected senior Associate Prof. Sohan Lal Karn for providing his kind support, guidance and suggestions during every stage of the preparation of this dissertation. I also highly gratefully thank Prof. Dr. Madhavi Singh Shah, head, Central Department of Economics, T.U. for her generous encouragement for making entire research work.

During the preparation of this report I have visited several places in Kathmandu valley and met different kinds of status of carpet sector. In most of the places they fully cooperated me. So, I would like to extend my gratitude and sincere thanks to all the respondents for extending their assistance, cooperation, and onhesitant respondent with correct answers.

I am grateful to my family members Mr. Upendra Ray, Mr. Anil Kumar Yadav and Sunil for their valuable encouragement, provisions of a suitable environment and financial support. I would like to thank Mr. Khem Raj Bhatt for his suggestion about the report.

Last but not least, I express my sincere thanks to Mr. K.G. Maharjan for his kind help in typing and printing the dissertation.
