ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At first, I am very happy to express my deep sense of gratitude to my thesis research supervisor Mr. Jiban Mani Poudel, a faculty member at the Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology for his valuable guidance, encouragement, suggestions and co-operation. His guidance was a source of inspiration for me. Similarly, I also thankful to my external examiner Kapil Babu Dahal for providing critical comments and valuable suggestions to carry out my study in the present form.

Next, I would like to express my respect and sincere thanks to Prof. Dr. Om Gurung, Head of the Central Department of Sociology/ Anthropology for providing me with valuable information.

Thanks to all respondents sampled, selected or encountered for interview and discussion providing reliable and valuable data and information that built the base of this study. I am also thankful to the libraries and librarians at central library of T.U., USA library and Indian library, where I reviewed the relevant literature in the course of my study.

I would to express my heartily thank as well as I never forget my friends Chet Raj Bhandari, Sita, Papiya, Bishnu Devi, Rekha and Sapana for his or her enough help and enough time to me for the study.

I heartly express my gratitude to my parents Mr. Harkan Shrestha, Mrs. Chini Maya Shrestha, brother Mr. Santosh Shrestha, Sister Mrs. Urmila Shrestha, Mrs. Uttam Shrestha and Asta for their depth effort to bring me here.

I express my thanks to Jeeten Maharjan of JEE Computer Center, Kirtipur, for typing and printing this dissertation.
