Acknowledgements

The present study debts remarkably to the supportive guidance and indispensable suggestions from my senior supervisor Mr. Ramesh Thapa. True, his guidance and perpetual co-operation to materialize this task into reality surges a deep sense of gratitude to him.

Mr. Sadan Adhikari, Mr. Bal Bahadur Thapa, Mr. Shuvraj Ranabhat and Mr. Hem Sharma as teachers of the department are to be remembered for their great help to furnish this task. I owe much to Ast. Prof. Dr. Krishna Chandra Sharma for his support in his capacity as Head of the Department to verify this research. I am equally grateful to all of my respected teachers for providing me the strength to complete this project. I can not forget the invaluable suggestions and help from honourable teachers Dr. Arun Gupto and Dr. Sanjeev Upreti in the field of mysticism.

I am always indebted to my respected parents Ramchandra and Radha Nepal for their dream to see me as a successful son and their due attempt to materialize their dream.

I am entirely thankful to all of my friends Ravin, Phanindra, Anup and Ramesh Adhikari who helped me in one way or the other to complete this task. Mr. Ramchandra Aryal is highly thanked for providing the computer for accomplishing this work. My siblings Ramhari Nepal, Raju and Sabitri are always to be remembered for their readiness to assist me from their level in the course of my study to complete this project. Ramkrishna Dai of Araniko Route Truck Unit has also helped me a lot to carry out this research.

Abstract

Ginsberg's Howl has mysticism as it combines the eccentric way of life as in the mysticisms of Christianity, William Blake and Zen Buddhism. The celebration of freedom of life, innocence and enlightenment through the visionary perceptions of human world as mentioned in these mysticisms have been quite iconoclastically embroidered in the poem to represent the revolutionary flavor against the conservatism that developed in America after the Second World War and during the Cold War. Human life is to be celebrated and enjoyed as the mystic exposures in the poem like inhaling drugs and alcohol, involving in homosexuality, enjoying public nudism etc. celebrate eccentric way of life through vivid examples of mysticism. The celebration is like the unique norms of monks and parsons who celebrate the life in their own way as per the standard of religious rules. Certainly, the overflow of freedom of self expression to attain the mystic vision without taking care of social restrictions must be a part of mysticism in Howl.
