

Tribhuvan University

Failure of Utopian Ideals in Aldous Huxley's Brave New World

A Thesis Submitted to the Central Department of English,

T.U. in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirement for the Degree of Master of Arts

In English

Submitted By:

Sita Sapkota

University Campus

Kirtipur, Kathmandu

January, 2008

TRIBHUVAN UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Approval Letter

This is to certify that the thesis entitled Failure of Utopian Ideals in Aldous Huxley's *Brave New World by Sita Sapkota, submitted to the Central Department of English, Tribhuvan University, has been approved by the undersigned members of the Research Committee.

Members of the Research Committee:

Internal Examiner

External Examiner

Head
Central Department of English
Kirtipur

Date: _____

Acknowledgements

This present research could never come into its present form without the scholarly and invaluable guidance and encouragement of my supervisor Mrs. Anju Gupta, Lecturer of Central Department of English, Kirtipur, Kathmandu. I am very grateful to her advice and suggestions to explore and organize the ideas. I express my sincerest gratitude to her.

I would like to express a deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Krishna Chandra Sharma for granting me an opportunity to carry out this research work. I am also grateful to my respected teachers, Dr. Birendra Pandey, Mr. Pushpa Raj Acharya and Mr. Sankar Subedi for their corroborative support to make my research meaningful.

In addition, I would like to express my deep appreciation to my friends Bimala Dhakal and Shreedhar Gautam for incessant intellectual support and encouragement. Similarly I am highly indebted to all the writers, critics and editors of the source materials of this research.

Finally, I express my deep sense of gratitude to my husband Chudamani Subedi, brother Er. Salik Ram Subedi, sister Sabina Bastola and all my family members for providing me time and support for this study. I also thank Jee Computer Center, Kirtipur for timely printing my research work.

January 2008

Sita Sapkota

Abstract

The thesis entitled "Failure of Utopian Ideals in Aldous Huxley's Brave New World" concerns the failure of different characters in finding the real happiness in scientifically advanced future world. It is the satire on modern people who unquestionably believe in the comforts given by science and ultimately lose their individual potentialities and live life like that of robots as citizens of Brave New World. Even if they get conscious of their human instincts and real happiness they become unable to get these things in the midst of comforts given by science. The characters like John, Bernard, Helmholtz, Lenina and Linda search their human instincts in the so-called happiest Brave New World but cannot succeed and it is the disastrous failure of their utopian ideals.

Contents

Page No.

Acknowledgements

Abstract

Chapter 1 : Introduction 1-13

1.1. Aldous Huxley and His Works 1

1.2 Huxley's Novelistic Technique 8

1.3 Significance and Importance of the Work 11

Chapter 2: Satire and Irony as Tools for Failure of Utopian Ideals 14-31

2.1 Meaning and Definition 14

2.2 Historical Development of Satire and Irony 19

2.3 Huxley as a Satirist 27

Chapter 3: Textual Analysis 32-57

Chapter 4: Conclusion 58-60

Works Cited