ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my respected teacher Mr. Madhusudan Subedi who was most co-operative and encouraging towards my effort to prepare this thesis. This study would not have been completed without his supervision and guidance. I would like to thank Dr. Om Gurung, Head of Sociology/Anthropology Department, TU Central Campus, Kirtipur for accepting this study.

My heartfelt thanks also go to Executive Director Mr. Krishna P. Bhattarai and Human Resources and Rehabilitation Manager Mr. Shankar Malakar of HRDC for encouraging me to conduct the research at HRDC, and Mr. Sagar Raj Sinkhada who provided me important materials on Research Methodology. I am very grateful to children of HRDC and their parents and teachers and the staff of HRDC including Training and Education Department. I also take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Indira Joshi, Coordinator of Patan CBR for supporting me to carry out data collection in Lalitpur region and Mrs. Kabita Shrestha from Patan CBR for restless and continuous support and facilitation during field visits for data collection. I am also grateful to Mr. Asha Ram Maharjan, my maternal uncle for helping me to undertake this study and for providing me valuable advices; my parents for care and support in pursuing further studies and Mr. Nabin Bajracharya for extending support to me.

I am also thankful to my friend Mr. Subash Khadka for support during data collection. And also to all the other teachers who have always been so helpful by providing comments and suggestions. I would like to thank Mrs. Reema Sharma (Maharjan), my wife, in particular, who was always with me during my thesis period providing continuous support and encouragement.

Last but not the least; I am really indebted to all of them who had supported me to complete this work.

Raju Maharjan
