ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study was possible because of the valuable assistance and cooperation of several people and institutions to whom I would like to express my gratitude.

First of all, I thank Dr. Ram B. Chhetri for taking on the role of Supervisor on the formulation and production of this dissertation. I am immensely grateful to him for providing me the time, effort and support in completing this dissertation. I would also like to express my gratitude to Dr. Rajendra Pradhan for his guidance in initiating this dissertation.

I would like to thank Dr. Laya P. Upreti, my External Advisor for giving me his valuable comments and constructive suggestions in completing this study.

My special appreciation goes to Dr. Tri Ratna Manandhar, Professor of History for his valuable guidance in the initial stage of my thesis preparation. I also thank everyone at the Kendriya Manandhar Sangh (KMS), particularly Mr. Badri Narayan Manandhar, the Secretary and Ms. Sushila Manandhar, Executive Member of KMS for providing me the required documents and information available at KMS. I am indebted towards Ms. Sumita Manandhar and Ms. Trishna Manandhar for their help in data collection.

Most of all, this thesis would not be possible without the cooperation and participation of all the respondents without whom there would be no outcome. Despite their hectic schedules, they were able to give me the time to answer my questions, for which I will be always grateful. I especially thank Mr. Kedar Manandhar of Dhalashikwo Tol and Mr. Ram Krishna Manandhar of Phalchasa Tol for their invaluable support during my field work.

I thank my dearest friends Sirjana, Bidhya and Chetna for their help and support throughout the process of the production of this dissertation.

Lastly, I immensely thank my father Mr. Prahlad Narayan Manandhar for his constant encouragement, support and assistance in every step of the process of producing this dissertation. Infinite gratitude goes to the rest of my family as well for bearing with me during this whole process.

Prabina Manandhar
