

TRIBHUVAN UNIVERSITY

2007

– Prachanda Hamal

Tess as a Victim of Victorian Morality

A Thesis Submitted to the Central Department of English in the Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of Master of Arts in English

By

Prachanda Hamal

Central Department of English

Kirtipur, Kathmandu

September, 2007

Tess as a Victim of Victorian Morality

Tribhuvan University

Faculty of Humanities and Social Science

Letter of Approval

This thesis titled "Tess as a Victim of Victorian Morality" submitted to the Central Department of English, Tribhuvan University by Prachanda Hamal, has been approved by the undersigned members of the research committee.

Members of the Research Committee:

Internal Examiner

External Examiner

Head
Central Department of English

Date: 2064-05-26

Acknowledgement

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the scholars, guardians, and my friends who directly or indirectly assisted me to give this thesis to its present form. The completion of this thesis would have remained a mere dream without their truthful encouragement, constructive insight and assistance. I am intellectually indebted to my advisor Dr. Shiva Rijal and Dr. Krishna Chandra Sharma, Head of Central Department of English, under whose persistence supervision, I became able to make the research and success. It inspires in me a deep sense of gratitude for their meticulous support and sympathetic approach to me. My sincere thanks also go to Mrs. Badri Acharya, and Mr. Shrijan Chhetri for their respective counseling in both scholarly and technical issues. Likewise, I am equally indebted to all the lectures and staff of the Department.

I am very much grateful to my colleagues Mrs. Yubraj Aryal, Mr. Deepak Poudel, Mr. Govinda Poudel and Mr. Achut Upreti for their encouragement and their support and kind help and other all my friends who have relentlessly inspired me to complete the thesis. Last but not the least, Jee Computer Center and its Mr. Jeeten Maharjan and Bibek Maharjan, who deserve special thanks for excellent typing and printing of thesis.

Prachanda Hamal

Abstract

The thesis explores the dehumanizing and inhumanely effects on an individual imposed by Victorian morality, the kind of morality which not only demands subordination of individual wishes but also corrupts the vital force of human potential. The interaction of culture with nature and the corruption of the former over the latter is what the central inquiry that the entire thesis makes. Tess signifies nature in pure and pristine form whereas Victorian morality an impure and corrupt.

Contents

	Page No.
CHAPTER-I	1-7
Introduction	1
Notes on Thomas Hardy and His Novel	1
CHAPTER-II	8-17
On Victorian Morality	8
CHAPTER-III	18-27
Tess as a an naive woman	18
Tess's Relation with Alec D'Urbervilles	24
CHAPTER-IV	28-46
Tess as a Victim of the Victorian Morality	28
Tess's relation with Angel Clare	28
Tess as a Self Victim	38
CHAPTER-V	47-52
Conclusion	47