ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation has been completed for the partial fulfillment of the requirement for the Master of Arts degree in sociology. I have got much help and guidance from different scholars, teachers and others during my research. Their contribution has played vital role in my research. So I am very much obliged with them.

I would like to thank Prof. Prabhakar Lal Das, Department of Sociology/Anthropology, T U, Kirtipur, for guiding me and providing with valuable and constructive comments. It would have been almost impossible to complete my dissertation without proper guidance and counseling of my guide Prof. Prabhakar Lal Das. I am also indebted to Dr Om Gurung, Head of Department of Sociology/Anthropology, T.U., Kirtipur and all the teachers and staffs of the Department for their co-operation.

I am also grateful to Aasha Chaudhary (President of Tharu Mahila Samaj) for her co- operation, support and affection throughout the data collection period. I am equally grateful all the respondents of the study area for providing me with their very personal and valuable information.

At last, I sincerely thank all the individuals, NGOs/INGOs and CBOs for their help and support at different levels and times.

Dew Kala Rai
