ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In course of the preparation of this thesis and field study, many individuals from different sectors have made significant contribution without their cooperation and help, it would have been impossible to complete this thesis.

I am very much grateful to my research supervisor Mr. Madhusudan Subedi, Lecturer of Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, TU, for his continuous guidance, encouragement and support from initial stage of selecting the topic and for guiding me throughout the thesis preparation with his ideas and knowledge.

I wish to extend my gratefulness to Mr. Dil Bahadur Bhatta from the Headquarters of armed police, Hallchock at Soyambhu, Gupta Bahadur Shrestha from the Headquarters of Nepal police at Naxal, and Major Shahadev Thapa from the Headquarters of Nepal Army at Bhadrakali and all the Maoist political leader respondents. They provided me respondents and related materials for my data collection from their own institution.

I am grateful to Mr. Jagadish Oli, Lecturer of Padma Kanya College for his valuable guidance and suggestions to complete this study. I am also grateful to Mr. Rom Thapa Magar for his encouragement from the first stage of selecting topic and proposal writing.

I am very much grateful and thankful to all respondents for their cooperation and participation throughout my visit at their home and outside home, even in the period of grief and sorrows. Through this thesis, I would like to pay my heartfelt condolence to those all whose husbands were killed in the conflict and pray almighty God, Pashupati

Nath to bear the sorrow and to restore the peace and prosperity in the country.

I am indebted to my mother, Bal Kumari Rana, uncle Man Bahadur Ale and brother Komal Ale who provided me their kind cooperation such as a favorable environment to complete my Masters Degree. I can't forget my helpful friends Sabita Waiba and Kopila Subba, who helped me a lot. How could I forget to Mrs. Mina Paudel and Mr. Bimal Chandra Sharma Librarian of INSEC, for their cooperation to my visit at the library.

I would like to thank to all the government officers NGOs, INGOs who helped me to complete my dissertation providing relevant materials and their views. I would like to thank to Om Chandra Shrestha, for data analysis through SPSS program. Also, thankful to Ms Lily Thapa the Chairman of WHR: SWG Nepal, for her kind suggestion in the research.

Lastly, I would like to acknowledge to my husband Yagya Bicram Rana who encouraged me to complete my thesis and was always beside me for continuous wishing and financial support for my study.
