ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study was possible with the cooperation, support and kindness of many people. I am highly indebted to the Wonem Limbus of my research area – Barhbise and Swachi Gaun for their keen interest in my study. This study would not have been completed without their trust, generous cooperation and patience.

I express sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Prof. Dr. Om Gurung, for his guidance and insight throughout the research with great deal of patience and tolerance especially while reviewing my thesis draft continuously. I would also like to express my gratitude to the University Campus; Department of Sociology/ Anthropology and to all the Lecturer, especially my external examiner Mr. Dambar Chemjong, and Lecturers Mr. Uddhav Rai and Mr. Jailab Rai and other Readers and Professors for their guidance and friendly environment in the classroom.

I am grateful to my key informant Mr. Thira Bahadur Wonem Limbu who helped me to identify their Village settlement as well as introduced me with most of the area they live and families they belong. I am also thankful to Dhan Bahadur Wonem Limbu, Khagendra Wonem Limbu, Bhim Magar and Padam Bahadur Aale (Magar) for their warm hospitality and providing me with valuable historical information and materials on the various aspects of the Wonem Limbu culture and society.

Lastly, but in no sense the least, I am thankful to my family and friends who supported and encouraged me throughout the entire endeavor.
