ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful honoured to write few words for this dissertation. This dissertation is an outcome of almost one year's long study on "Social background of Divorced Couple and its effect in family life in Kaski District(A Study of Divorced cases in Kaski District)". The overall goal of the study was to explore the causes of Divorce, to examine the socio-economic background and to explain the relationship between socio-economic background and divorce in Kaski District.

It is a matter is pride for me to express my sincere gratitude to the evaluation committee, department of Sociology T.U. Central Camups, Kirtipur, Kathmandu, Nepal for providing me an opportunity to present a dissertation on this topic.

I hope finding of this report would be an exciting and useful for readers and researchers whoever is interested to study the divorce culture in Nepal in general and divorce case in city areas in particular. I believe that this report will play an important role in sharing and dissemination ideas, opinions and thoughts on the issues of effects brought by the divorce up on an individual and his or her family members. And it will contribute to the stock in the literature of Nepalese culture issues in Nepal.

I would like to express my profoundest thank to my dissertation supervisor Associate Proff. Dr.Tika Ram Gautam, the Lecture of Sociology for the highly valuable, significant and encouraging suggestions to complete this dissertation. In spite of his other duties and responsibilities, he shared his priceless time and guided me with his astute suggestions, supports and direction to complete this dissertation. This study would not come out in the present shape without his guidance and counselling.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to the department head anthropology of Prithavi Naryan Campus, Pokhara, Associate Prof. Dr.PrakeshUpdhaya for his assistance and cooperation in my field work activities. Especially, I want to remember the cooperation extended by the judges, lawyer and the deputy secretary Mr.DilbanduBaral and other family member of Kaski District Court, Pokhara whose valuable cooperation in providing information for the present study has been immense value for me.

Last but not least, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my parents and sincere appreciation to my family member for their cooperation and encouragement extended to me during the time of this research work, without which the present research work would not been materialized. But I am alone responsible for any deficiency of analysis, presentation and errors in this report.
